

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS
Faculty of Arts and Science
University of Toronto

JOB POSTING – SESSIONAL LECTURER
2008-09 Winter Session

ECO309H1S Economic Growth and Development in Southeast Asia

This course evaluates economic development strategies in Southeast Asia and their implications for growth, industrialization, and income inequality. It first reviews trade and development theory that can explain the economic development of Southeast Asia. Then, it explains the initial conditions provided by resource endowments, geographical location, trade-international economic relations, and domestic economic development policies, and how these conditions have affected the process of development. The course focuses on the five most populous and resource abundant countries of the region: Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand and Vietnam

Estimated course enrolment: 75

Estimated TA support: 105 hours

Schedule: T9-11

Sessional dates: January 1 to April 30, 2009 (final exam may be held in May 2009)

Salary: $6,500 (Sessional Lecturer I)
$7,000 (Sessional Lecturer II)

Qualifications:

- ✓ Demonstrated excellence in teaching over four or more years
- ✓ Prior experience teaching this course at university level
- ✓ Ability and experience teaching large classes
- ✓ PhD in Economics

Description of duties:

- ✓ Preparation and delivery of lectures in this course
- ✓ Supervision of teaching assistant(s) assigned to course and paid by University
- ✓ Preparation, supervision and grading of tests and examinations in accordance with University regulations as described in the Faculty of Arts & Science Academic Handbook

Closing date: June 11, 2008

To be considered for this position, an application (application form) must be submitted electronically. Applicants must also attach a Curriculum Vitae in PDF format to the application form. If you have any questions, please contact economics.recruiting \(at\) utoronto.ca. All applicants must have a valid email address.

Preference in hiring is given to qualified persons holding the rank of Sessional Lecturer II if advanced to that rank by the Department of Economics or - if advanced by another department - who have also taught at least 8 half courses or the equivalent for the Department of Economics in 4 of the past 6 years, as well as to recent U of T PhD graduates or ABDs.

This job is posted in accordance with the CUPE 3902 Unit 3 Collective Agreement